Dear Parents and Carers,

Despite the drizzly weather the children's spirits are soaring as they continue to make the most of the challenges and creative opportunities in school.

Yesterday's Art Day

Mrs Grierson organised a fantastic Art Day for all the children across the school to take part in. We were really impressed with our very own school artists paying homage to Banksy, Jackson Pollock, Andy Warhol, Picasso and Matisse along with some fantastic large scale collage and print making.

Clothes + Clothes + Clothes = Money!!

We will have a final collection of unwanted clothes on Tuesday 28th June. So far we have raised almost £200 through your donations of clothes.

Please do send in any clothes that you no longer want on Monday 27th and Tuesday 28th June.

Portrait Competition

Congratulations to Elijah Lawrence for his careful and detailed drawing of HRH Queen Elizabeth II. He won First Prize in our competition with Pheobie Hogg in 2nd place and Ruby and Lily Sheerman in joint 3rd place. Well done to everyone who took part.
